

Our Vision

January 2017

Cantores Oecumenica recognises that music and singing are a gift that is life giving for all. As such we want to encourage music and singing especially in the next generation and provide free access to choral music for the local community.

In doing this Cantores Oecumenica aims to offer:

Members

- ~ an enjoyable and challenging singing experience regardless of age, faith, gender or race
- ~ a friendly and safe social environment

The local community and listeners

- ~ an exciting and inclusive listening experience
- ~ choral singing of a high standard

Patrons and sponsors

- ~ an opportunity to enjoy well-sung choral works

Professional accompanists, musicians and soloists

- ~ a worthwhile and enjoyable musical experience
- ~ the opportunity to express their musical gifts
